

For Kids' Sake...

Divorce is a painful and confusing experience for all children. Research indicates that the manner in which parents handle the divorce can have a direct effect on their children's adjustment. For Kids' Sake seminars are designed to help parents gain insight into the needs of their children for both the short and long term transitions of divorce.

Even the most loving and caring parents find it difficult to focus on their children's needs during such a traumatic time — and they seldom have the necessary skills to help their children with the resulting change and loss. For Kids' Sake puts parents in touch with their children's needs and provides them with the knowledge and skills to safely nurture their children through this process.

As an educational model, For Kids' Sake does not deal with personal or legal issues, nor is it intended to be a substitute for counseling. The overwhelming majority of parents who have participated in For Kids' Sake have felt that it is a very supportive and worthwhile experience.

Who may attend? Any interested parent or professional is invited. Parents or others involved in a divorce, motion to modify, or other suits involving the parent/child relationship may be required by the court to attend.

When and where are the seminars held? Sessions each month, 6-10 PM, at PISD Family and Education Guidance Services, 1300 19th Street, Plano, TX 75074. (See map and schedule on reverse side.)

Who facilitates the seminars? Professionals with a masters' degree in either counseling, social work, or parent education conduct the sessions. Generally a male and female co-facilitate.

What is the cost? Fee is $40 per person, payable in advance, and is not refundable. Sliding scale fees may be negotiated.

What information is covered? For Kids' Sake focuses on issues such as understanding the effects of divorce on children, gaining insight into children's perceptions of divorce, talking to children about family changes, how to avoid placing children in the middle of parental issues, maintaining a meaningful and loving relationship with children and skills for co-parenting.

How do I register? You must pre-register to attend the seminar. Complete and mail or deliver the registration form printed below with a $40 MONEY ORDER. (Cash will be accepted if delivering in person, checks/credit cards will NOT be accepted). Registration and payment must be received the last working day prior to requested seminar date. Registrations are not accepted by FAX or telephone. Please call for confirmation. Refunds will not be issued. If you have questions, please call Family and Education Guidance Services at 469.752.2272, 9:00 AM-4:00 PM, Monday-Friday.

Will I receive a Certificate of Completion? All participants who complete the four hour seminar receive a certificate of completion. Seminars begin and end on time. NO late arrivals are allowed. Participants must remain in class for the entire seminar. No exceptions.

For Kids' Sake is available in Spanish. Please see the dates and time on reverse side.
